

RELEASE OF LIABILITY

I/We,

understand and acknowledge that I/we are voluntarily participating at my/our own risk, this year of 20____, in an organized trail ride known as Redrock Trail Rides L.L.C. and owned and operated by Kathleen A. Sullivan.

I/We, hereby fully and forever release and do hereby agree to fully and forever release and discharge Kathleen A. Sullivan, as well as her husband, David P. Sullivan, who owns the lands on which the trail ride passes and Kathleen A. Sullivan, personally, being owner of said horses being ridden on the trail ride and owner of the tack on said horses, as well as any agents, employees and/or volunteers of above named, as well as any owner of said lands over which the trail ride may pass, on account of any bodily injury sustained by me or any other person caused by my riding said horses or property damage caused by my riding said horses.

The phrase "bodily injury" means bodily injury, sickness, or disease, including death resulting there from.

This release is intended to release and discharge and indemnify persons named herein from all claims, demands, damages, actions and rights of action, of whatever kind or nature which I/we might have or hereafter have or any other person may have on account of my riding on said trail ride.
